Clark & Batloo Funeral Home marks another milestone in their aim to faithfully serve our Nation of Trinidad & Tobago.

From rivalry to Re-creation

History states that "around 1886 Charles Clark, a seasoned businessman, diversified into the funeral business where the firm became known for its discretion, tact and general competence. It was the first to import a motorised hearse in 1907, although heretofore used, driven by elegant top-hatted coachmen, remanence a palatial into the 1990's.

In the 1950's Clark merged with a rival firm, Batloo firm, founded by Elnathan Batloo in the 1940's, it was a smaller scale enterprise, just across the street, which provided a funeral home and car detailing to form Clark & Batloo Limited, which still remains one of the most popular undertaking services in the island and whose headquarters stand on the site of the old (Arvey) Stables at 11 Tragarate Road, Port of Spain."

By Mrs. Sarah A. (2021). Storyteller of the History of Trinidad & Tobago. Green Street Publishing.

NEW CREATIONISM

Clark & Batloo Ltd. is proud to announce the opening of their new creationism, taking everything under one roof and would definitely make things much easier for their clients.

With the opening of their new creationism located on its premises, they are the only Funeral Home in the North-West that offers an integrated Funeral Experience.

Equipped with professional embalmers, well-trained staff, personalised add-on services, including repair/alteration of the deceased, create shapets, cemetery works, parking available across the street and more, the new creationism, Clark & Batloo continues to grow and progress in order to meet the unique needs of their clients.

The Directors of Clark & Batloo Ltd. know, only to want that they would notice where they are today, without the grace of God, the forbearance and patience of past generations, dedicated staff members and most of all, the country and support of their loyal clients.

Clark & Batloo will continue to offer sterling service to each and every one who walks through their doors as they faithfully serve the Nation of Trinidad & Tobago.

Director of Operations Luigi Juchas, second from right, giving a demonstration of the Crematorium to Directors of Clark & Batloo Ltd. Jeffrey, Richard, Jason and Bianca Juchas.
