Clark & Battoo Funeral Home marks another milestone in their aim to faithfully serve our Nation of Trinidad & Tobago.

From rivalry to Re-creation

History states that "around 1880 a Hatter Clark, a colonial businessman, diversified into the funeral business, where the firm became known for its discretion, tact and general cleanliness. He was the first to import a motorised hearse in 1902, although his hearsemen's carts, driven by elegant top-hatted coachmen, remained popular into the 1930's.

In the 1950's Clark merged with a rival firm, Battoo Bros, founded by Elieffort Battoo in the 1940's. It was a terrific move for the firm, just across the street, which provided a funeral home and car dealership to form Clark & Battoo Limited, which will now be one of the most popular undertaking services in the island. And where headquarters is based on the site of the old Levey Stables at 11 Traparate Road, Port of Spain."

Brownman Singh, A. (2015). Snapshots of the History of Trinidad & Tobago. Queen Bishop Publishing.

NEW CREMATORIUM

Clark & Battoo Ltd. is proud to announce the opening of their crematorium. Having everything under one umbrella would definitely make things easier for their clients. With the opening of their new crematorium located on its premises, they are the only Funeral Home in the North-West that offers an integrated Funeral Experience.

Equipped with professional cremators, well-trained staff, personalised aid on services including repatriation of the deceased, on-site chapel, cemetery works, parking available across the street and now, the new crematorium Clark & Battoo continues to grow and progress in order to meet the unique needs of their clients.

The Directors of Clark & Battoo Ltd. know, only too well, that they would not be where they are today, without the grace of God, the foresight and passion of past generations, dedicated staff members and most of all, the caring and support of their loyal clients.

Clark & Battoo will continue to offer sterling service to each and every one who walks through their doors as they faithfully serve the Nation of Trinidad & Tobago.
